

Join us for this year's Open House at the Discovery Garden, the Salal Native Plant Garden, and the NW Fruit Garden

---

Whatever the physical challenge, take heart and continue to enjoy gardening by implementing some of these adaptive methods.

---

Interested in growing vegetables but wondering where to start? Master gardeners walk you through what to consider when starting a vegetable garden for the first time.

---

Winter is a great time to plan for next season and explore the many advantages of building raised gardening beds.